Susume Seigaku Denou Kenkyuubu ch.15

Saphire here! We're back with another release of Susume Seigaku! There are way too much local Japanese jokes/references in this chapter that I won't even bother to make a note about each and every single one of them. They are all translated literally, so let those who knows them make their own connection. Basically all of them just refer to various Japanese TV celebrities or important people from the gaming industry being look alike of each other.

Instead, let's talk about something interesting I've recently found out that is somewhat related to this chapter. As we know, Seigaku is the name of the school that Nishiarai is going to, and recently I've found out that this school also exists in real life with the same name, and not only that, Hirano-sensei also went there during his high school years! That, and Terakado (chief) is also based on his real life friend with the same name. How crazy is that!

Considering the title of this chapter, I'd be inclined to believe that Azaraku-sensei is probably based off a real person as well, his name could even be the same, I guess we will never know.
